Welcome – Chair Jeff Hornstein

- 1) April Minutes Approved w one correction
- 2) Treasurer's Report Ilene Wilder has stepped down as Treasurer. Jeff Hornstein, as temporary Treasurer reports $3500 is in account as of May, aside from Giving Circle money, and that member invoices will go out this month.
- 3) Guest Speaker Patrick Morgan, Deputy Commissioner, Strategy & Engagement Philadelphia Parks and Recreation Public spaces are not just nice to have, they are must haves, an integral part of our civic infrastructure.
- 4) Crosstown Elections Nominations for Chair, Jeff Hornstein, Queen Village; Vice Chairs: Joseph Kain, Fishtown and Drew Murray, Logan Square; For Treasurer, De'Wayne Drummond, Mantua; For Secretary, Stephen Huntington, Center City Residents, and James Petkovits, Roxborough.

Vote was taken by acclamation for all officers other than Secretary. Vote for Secretary position: 7-6 in favor of Jim Petkovits

- 5) New Business
Revenue Neutral Property Tax Bill, Jeff Hornstein committed to convene a meeting of the Tax & Finance group to meet over the summer, open to anyone who wants to be part of it, and come up with a recommendation to bring back to the Coalition in the fall.

6) Committee Updates

Zoning Committee Update Stephen Huntington reported Darrel Clark has come up with a resolution to set up a commission to review zoning in general. Important for us to present a wish list to this commission. Steve made motion that Crosstown should have representation on this Commission that is being established in Bill 190395. Joe Kain seconded. Motion passed.

Preservation Committee Eugene Desyatnik has agree to chair this new committee

7) Old Business

D&O quote: Jeff Hornstein - Dash & Love still waiting for them to get back to us.
